(Take your time and answer each question thoroughly. Feel free to attach separate pieces of paper if necessary)

1. Describe other mission experiences or service opportunities you have had and why you want to participate in a mission experience this summer.

2. What does it mean to you to be a visitor in a different culture? How would you approach differences?

3. Explain how you deal with unexpected changes, flexibility, dealing with others in stressful circumstances, patience, following instructions from your leaders, etc.

4. What's motivating you to want to go to Camp Roots this summer?

TEEN COMMITMENT:

I desire to be a part of the Camp Roots team this year. I understand that it is a huge commitment involving attending meetings, fundraising events and other preparatory activities. I promise to pray for and prepare for my mission trip, making it a priority in my life. I promise to respect and follow the leadership of all the adult leaders on the team as well as my other students. I understand that not sufficiently preparing for the trip spiritually, financially or otherwise may mean I may be removed from the team before or during the trip.

PARENT COMMITMENT:

I understand that my teenager is applying for the Camp Roots team. I understand the commitment he/she is making to attend meetings, fundraising events and other preparatory activities. I promise to help my teenager fulfill their commitment as well as pray for the team consistently myself. I understand that if my teenager does not fulfill his/her commitment, then he/she may be removed from the team before or during the trip, at my expense. I am responsible for all costs of the trip that are not fulfilled with fundraising. I give my support and permission for my child to participate in this effort.
